Sadiq Public School's Visit to SOS Children's Village Multan:

Sadiq Public School recently embarked on a heartwarming journey to the SOS Children's Village in Multan, fostering connections and spreading joy. Our students and faculty eagerly explored the Village, engaging with its vibrant community and gaining invaluable insights into the lives of its residents.

During their visit, our delegation had the privilege of viewing a poignant documentary, providing a deeper understanding of the Village's mission and impact. Touched by the stories shared, our team brought along thoughtful gifts, aiming to brighten the children's days and create lasting memories.

The exchange of smiles, laughter, and shared experiences enriched both parties, fostering bonds of empathy and camaraderie. This visit served as a testament to our commitment to social responsibility and our belief in the power of education to inspire positive change. We look forward to continuing our support for the SOS Children's Village and nurturing these meaningful connections.

Fruit Tree Planting at SOS Children's Village Multan:

Ms. Samia Mujtaba, driven by her passion for sustainability and environmental stewardship, spearheaded a thoughtful initiative aimed at enhancing the landscape of SOS Children's Village Multan. With meticulous planning and dedication, Ms. Mujtaba organized the planting of a diverse array of fruit trees, including mangoes and guavas, totaling 60 in number.

The careful selection of these trees not only adds to the aesthetic appeal of the village but also serves as a sustainable source of nutrition for the children and the wider community. This initiative stands as a testament to the power of individual action in fostering positive change and creating a greener, more vibrant environment for all.

Visit from Government Home Economics College Multan:

In a mutually enriching exchange of knowledge and goodwill, SOS Children's Village Multan warmly welcomed a delegation of students from the Government Home Economics College Multan. This visit, designed to facilitate educational exploration and cultural exchange, provided the visiting students with a firsthand glimpse into the daily life and endeavors of the village's residents.

Guided by the children themselves, the visitors embarked on a comprehensive tour of the village premises, gaining valuable insights into its operations and ethos. As a gesture of friendship and appreciation, the visiting students brought along a selection of delectable treats, which served to further strengthen the bond between the two communities.

Through such collaborative endeavors, both institutions continue to uphold their commitment to fostering mutual understanding, empathy, and support among diverse populations.

Visit of Captain Rizwan Qadeer, District Commissioner, and Mr. Azhar Baloch:

SOS Children's Village Multan was honored by the gracious visit of Captain Rizwan Qadeer, District Commissioner, alongside our esteemed benefactor, Mr. Azhar Baloch. Their presence brought a heartfelt moment of compassion and unity as they distributed Eid clothes to the devoted house mothers and girls of the Village.

Captain Qadeer and Mr. Azhar's visit underscored their deep commitment to the welfare of the community and their unwavering support for the cause. Their kindness not only brought joy and dignity to the recipients but also reaffirmed the importance of collective efforts in creating a more compassionate society.

The event was a testament to the spirit of unity and generosity that thrives within our community. As we reflect on this meaningful visit, we extend our heartfelt gratitude to Captain Qadeer and Mr. Baloch for their invaluable contributions to the well-being of the SOS Children's Village Multan. Their kindness continues to inspire us as we strive to nurture and empower the lives of those under our care.

Visit of Ms. Maryam Khan, Commissioner of Multan, and Mr. Azhar Baloch:

It was a momentous occasion as Ms. Maryam Khan, Commissioner of Multan, and our esteemed donor, Mr. Azhar Baloch, graced the SOS Children's Village in Multan with their presence. Their visit was marked by a heartwarming gesture as they distributed Eid clothes to the dedicated house mothers and the girls of the Village.

Ms. Maryam and Mr. Azhar's visit underscored their unwavering commitment to the welfare of the community and their deep-rooted support for the cause. Their generosity not only brought joy to the recipients but also served as a beacon of hope and solidarity.

The event was a testament to the power of collaboration and compassion in creating meaningful change. As we continue to work hand in hand with dedicated individuals like Ms. Khan and Mr. Baloch, we reaffirm our dedication to nurturing and empowering the lives of those in need within our community.

Iftar Gathering at Ramada by Wyndham:

In a heartwarming gesture of generosity and community spirit, Mrs. Saima Faisal, the esteemed Chairperson of SOS Children's Home Multan, orchestrated a memorable iftar experience for all the children under the care of SOS Multan projects. Held at the prestigious Ramada by Wyndham, this event exemplified the essence of compassion and inclusivity.

The gathering provided an opportunity for the children to come together in the spirit of camaraderie, breaking their fast amidst a setting of warmth and hospitality. Mrs. Faisal's thoughtful initiative ensured that every child felt valued and cherished, fostering a sense of belonging and joy.

As the children savored the delicious delicacies and shared laughter and stories, Mrs. Faisal's dedication to their well-being shone brightly, serving as an inspiration to all. This iftar gathering not only nourished the bodies but also uplifted the spirits, leaving an indelible mark of kindness and compassion on the hearts of all involved.

NCBA&E Multan's Staff's Visit to SOS Children's Village Multan:

The SOS Children's Village Multan welcomed esteemed visitors from NCBA&E Multan, including the distinguished Dr. Zahid Zulfiqar Rana and his colleagues, in a gesture of collaboration and goodwill. Their visit, aimed at fostering mutual understanding and support, was marked by meaningful interactions and shared initiatives.

During their visit, the NCBA&E staff engaged with the Village community, gaining insights into its operations and the needs of its residents. Their presence exemplified a spirit of compassion and solidarity, reaffirming their commitment to social responsibility.

In addition to their generous visit, the NCBA&E team extended a special concession offer for admissions to their university, further demonstrating their dedication to empowering the youth and facilitating their access to education.

Furthermore, as a token of appreciation, NCBA&E Multan also provided a gift bag to the Village Director, symbolizing their gratitude and respect for the leadership and dedication exhibited at SOS Children's Village Multan.

The visit served as a testament to the power of partnership and collective action in creating positive change. As the bonds between NCBA&E and SOS Children's Village Multan continue to strengthen, we look forward to further collaboration and mutual support in our shared mission of nurturing and empowering future generations.

Pakistan Day Festivities at SOS Multan:

In a vibrant display of national pride and unity, the children of SOS Multan came together adorned in traditional attire to commemorate Pakistan Day. Against the backdrop of patriotic fervor, they celebrated the rich tapestry of their nation's heritage and diversity.

The festivities were a testament to the resilience and spirit of the children, as they participated in various activities and performances, showcasing their talents and enthusiasm. From spirited renditions of national anthems to engaging cultural displays, every moment resonated with a sense of belonging and unity.

As they stood shoulder to shoulder, the children of SOS Multan exemplified the ideals of unity, faith, and discipline, reaffirming their commitment to building a brighter future for themselves.

and their country. This celebration not only honored Pakistan's history and accomplishments but also inspired hope and optimism for the journey ahead.

Online Counseling Session with Mrs. Rubina Arshad:

In a gesture of profound care and commitment, Mrs. Rubina Arshad, a cherished sponsor and donor of SOS Multan, extended her support to the youth by hosting a transformative online counseling session. With her wealth of experience and compassionate demeanor, Mrs. Arshad provided invaluable guidance and wisdom to the participants.

The session, facilitated through digital platforms, served as a safe space for the youth to express their concerns, aspirations, and challenges. Mrs. Arshad's insightful perspectives and empathetic approach fostered an environment of trust and understanding, empowering the youth to navigate their personal journeys with confidence and resilience.

As a longtime supporter of SOS Multan, Mrs. Arshad's dedication to the well-being and development of the youth resonated deeply with all those in attendance. Her commitment to making a positive impact on their lives was evident in every word spoken and piece of advice shared.

The counseling session not only provided practical guidance but also instilled a sense of hope and optimism for the future. Mrs. Arshad's unwavering support continues to be a source of inspiration for the youth as they strive to overcome challenges and reach their full potential.

DAE Sendups Exams:

In the month of March, the esteemed SOS Multan Institute of Technology administers a series of preparatory examinations known as DAE Sendups Exams, geared towards equipping students with the necessary skills and knowledge essential for success in their upcoming final exams.

These sendups serve as a pivotal milestone in the academic journey, offering students a comprehensive assessment of their understanding of the coursework and aiding them in identifying areas for improvement. With a focus on thorough preparation and academic excellence, these exams play a vital role in honing students' abilities and ensuring their readiness to excel in their final examinations.

Conducting NAVTTC RPL (Recognition of Prior Learning) Assessments:

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) stands as a pivotal process through which authorities meticulously evaluate an individual's amassed knowledge, skills, and competencies acquired via informal or non-formal learning pathways, thereby attributing them towards the attainment of nationally recognized qualifications.

In the month of March, the esteemed institution of SMIT embarked upon the significant task of conducting assessments for two NAVTTC RPL trades: Beautician and Air Conditioning Refrigeration (HVACR). This endeavor underscores SMIT's commitment to facilitating individuals in leveraging their existing expertise and experiences to obtain formal recognition in their chosen fields. Through these assessments, participants were afforded the opportunity to showcase their proficiencies and talents, ultimately paving the way towards their accreditation within the realm of national qualifications. Such initiatives not only validate individuals' prior learning journeys but also contribute to fostering a skilled and empowered workforce ready to meet the demands of today's dynamic industries.

Empowering Women Through Digital and Financial Literacy in A One-Day Workshop:

SOS Multan Institute of Technology recently played host to a one-day workshop facilitated by the Youth Employability Network (YEN), aimed at enhancing digital and financial literacy among women. This focused session shed light on the critical importance of these skill sets in today's rapidly evolving world, where they serve as linchpins in individual empowerment and socioeconomic advancement.

The workshop commenced with an insightful discourse on digital literacy, emphasizing its role in equipping individuals with the necessary tools to navigate, evaluate, and harness the potential of digital technologies and information effectively. Participants were guided through strategies for leveraging digital resources to enhance productivity, connectivity, and access to information.

Transitioning to the realm of financial literacy, the speaker elucidated its significance in empowering individuals to understand and manage financial matters adeptly. Key topics such as budgeting, saving, investing, borrowing, and comprehending financial products and services were explored in-depth, equipping attendees with essential skills to make informed financial decisions and secure their financial futures.

Through engaging discussions and interactive sessions, participants gained practical insights and strategies to enhance their digital and financial literacy competencies. By imparting these crucial skills, the workshop not only aimed at empowering individual participants but also at fostering a more inclusive and economically empowered society.
